New Parent
Brunch
brought to you by DSAM and
Bright Song LLC

Presently our New Parent
Brunches are held at:

The Church of the Holy Communion
4645 Walnut Grove Road Memphis, TN

New Parent Brunches are announced through mailings, newsletters, on our website calendar and on our facebook page. An RSVP is appreciated so that brunch can be planned.

New Parent Brunches provide parents of children with Down syndrome, up to six years old, with techniques to use during daily activities while caring for and playing with their children. The goal of our New Parent Brunches are to:

- Provide parent education about Down syndrome and their child's development .
- Encourage parent networking for continued support outside of the program.
- Host topic experts to discuss specific medical, financial, and emotional issues associated with having a child with special needs.
- Assist parents as they navigate the Early Intervention System and into transition.
